Pacific NW Federal Credit Union Partners with Schoolhouse Supplies to Help Raise $162,000 for Local Schools

Portland, OR, March 6, 2020 — Pacific NW Federal Credit Union is proud to partner with Schoolhouse Supplies to help ensure that every child in our area has access to free school supplies and a quality education. PNWFCU has donated backpacks and supplies and volunteered over 100 hours to the organization over the past few years. Providing educational tools for local students is important to the credit union, given their mission to be a financial partner to the community.

Being a sponsor of the annual Schoolhouse Celebrity Spelling Bee is one way the credit union can give back in a fun way, and with a big impact. The March 4, 2020 gala raised over $162,000. Money raised goes toward supplies for local classrooms and helps support the operation of Schoolhouse Supplies' Free Store for Teachers. A large group of teachers, parents, and business leaders from the community came together to support the event.

Eric Keyser, VP IT of Pacific NW Federal Credit Union, also serves on the Board of Schoolhouse Supplies. "PNWFCU has long supported our communities and local schools. Partnering with Schoolhouse Supplies to expand that reach and help more kids has been a wonderful opportunity. I am proud to join my Credit Union family with other supporters to celebrate Schoolhouse Supplies' 20th birthday," said Keyser.
