

Ten Commonly Asked Interview Questions and Tips on How to Answer

1. Tell me about yourself. Tip: Talk about a couple of your key achievements and the interviewer will likely select an accomplishment and ask you to tell more about it.
2. What is your greatest strength? Tip: Figure out what your number one strength or skill is, then talk briefly about it and provide a good example. Before going into an interview, write down several of your top strengths and examples of each.
3. Can you describe a situation in your past where you learned from a mistake? Tip: The best mistakes to share are those from which you learned something. Use your mistakes to show how you have matured and grown.
4. What is the most difficult situation you have ever faced? Tip: Pick an example in which you successfully resolved a tough situation. Tell your story briefly but try to reveal as many good qualities as possible. Your interviewer wants to hear about qualities such as perseverance, good judgment, and maturity.
5. Is there anything you would like to improve about yourself? Tip: Pick a weakness (for example, not being comfortable with public speaking or even oral presentations in the class), then show how you are working to improve it (being part of a debating team). Your goal here is to provide a short answer that satisfies the interviewer.
6. What is the most important thing you are looking for in a job? Tip: Figure out what you want most in a job. You might value challenge, good working conditions, or friendly co-workers. Talk about one or two items and explain why they are important to you.
7. What are your career goals? Tip: The interviewer likes to see if you are a person who plans your future and if you might be someone who would meet the company's needs after you finish school. Your task is to talk about the goals that you think the company can help you achieve. You score points if you leave the impression, you are a growth-oriented person with realistic expectations. As a teenager, you may be working to earn spending money or to pay for a car and gas. That shows initiative and planning.
8. What motivates you? Tip: Challenge, creativity, success, opportunity and personal growth are most frequently mentioned. You can also mention specific skills that you are motivated to use, such as problem-solving, decision-making, listening, writing, speaking, planning, or counseling people.
9. Why would you like to work for us? Tip: This is a great opportunity to impress the interviewer with what you know about their organization. Talk about the positives of their organization.
10. Why should we hire you? Tip: This is a great opportunity to sell you. Talk about your strengths and how they fit the needs of the company. You can briefly talk about skills or strengths that haven't already been discussed.
